Here are a few suggestions for nomination of anyone serving children in the transportation program.

1. In appreciation for extraordinary efforts by hosting school bus driver training that allows attendees to fulfill the 10 hour training requirement.
2. In appreciation for extraordinary efforts by providing continuous driver training sessions for drivers at school and always asking the hard questions.
3. In appreciation for extraordinary efforts by providing continuous driver training sessions for drivers anywhere, always standing up when volunteers are needed, and always providing the right answers.
4. In appreciation for extraordinary efforts by providing care and positive reinforcement for the children riding the bus.
5. In appreciation for extraordinary efforts by providing a safe and consistent environment for the children riding the bus.
6. In appreciation for extraordinary efforts by taking training, following the rules, being flexible and understanding, and standing up when someone else needs help.
7. Please feel free to nominate any person in the transportation program that works hard to keep students safe.
8. Please make sure that your nominee will attend the 2011 MAPT Conference.
